

I am absolutely opposed to allowing any cellphone use in a public aircraft and would refuse to fly on any airline that allowed it.

Many public places have begun to ban cellphone use. The FCC should help the flying public by not allowing any cellphone use onboard a public aircraft except for an emergency.